PRESS RELEASE

WHITEHILL TOWN COUNCIL WHITEHILL & BORDON ANNUAL TOWN MEETING

The Phoenix Theatre & Arts Centre was almost full on Wednesday 27th April for Whitehill & Bordon's Annual Town Meeting which highlighted the town's "proud past and exciting future".

Town Mayor, Cllr Colin Leach welcomed guest speakers, including:

- Adam Carew, who gave a presentation on behalf of the Woolmer Heritage Society, detailing the history of Whitehill & Bordon so as to underline why the heritage is so important in place shaping the new town.
- The Phoenix Theatre showcased some of the memoirs collected through the Bordon Reflections project with personal accounts of living in the town from Ione, Darron and Maureen:

- James Child and James Gross from the Whitehill and Bordon Regeneration Company looked into the future by showing how the town's heritage has been designed into the new town centre.
